4. How do they govern?

The College has adopted the Association of Colleges Code of Good Governance for English Colleges, March 2015.

The full Governing Body or Corporation meets each term. It receives reports from the Principal, Senior Managers, the Clerking Service and its own Committees. All non-executive directors also attend the Standards Board which came into existence from September 2015. At these meetings, non-executive directors receive and approve reports on strategic and curriculum matters.

Some of the detailed work is undertaken in Committees, which meet according to an annual calendar. The minutes of the Committees and the Corporation meetings are published on the College web site.

The Committees are:

Administration & Finance: oversees the budget, manages the resources and the estate and carries out the duties of the Corporation as the employer.

Audit: has legal powers to investigate all aspects of the administration and financial systems of the College; it employs 2 firms of auditors and commissions studies.

Governance Self-Assessment: undertakes Self-Assessment of the non-executive directors' work.

Remuneration: manages the Pay and Conditions of employment of the Principal, Deputy Principal and the Clerking Service.

Search and Governance: manages the work of the Corporation, and recruits new non-executive directors with the appropriate and necessary skills.

Standards Board: is responsible for the determination, maintenance and supervision of all matters relating to the educational performance and outcomes of students, including all regulations, measures and standards relating to educational performance that may apply to the College.

The Blackpool Sixth Form College is also a member of the Fylde Coast Academy Trust Safeguarding Board. This forum monitors the progress of safeguarding plans and staff training across member organisations and undertakes reviews of safeguarding cases in order to identify best practice and learning points in terms of the delivery of safeguarding.
